House Lorgues

Charm and authenticity are the key words of this stone country house built in 1847. Its living space of 189m² includes a large, very bright living space, a fully equipped independent kitchen with a large back kitchen/laundry room, a dining room and a living room with a fireplace. Still on the garden level, you will have the pleasure of discovering a master suite with bedroom, office, shower room and separate toilet. Upstairs there are three beautiful bedrooms, a bathroom with double sink, a shower and a toilet. The exteriors of the country house offer
